Jonnie was born in the small town of Shattuck Oklahoma in November, 1941. The middle of three children, Jonnie spent her childhood days riding her pony and playing the piano before moving Westward with her family to Garden Grove, California in the spring of 1955. A country girl through and through, Jonnie was passionate about her animals. She loved everything outdoors, most notably tending to her horses. She took many ribbons in the barrel racing competitions. She loved camping, listening to country music and sitting around the bonfire telling stories with her friends. Most of all, she loved her family, She wished the best for everyone, without asking anything in return. She will always be remembered for her gentleness, grace and kindness towards others. Jonnie was predeceased by her Father, Alexander John "A.J." Wassenmiller, and her Mother, Pearl Eva Jackson-Wassenmiller. She is survived by her husband, Stephen Pasco, of Prescott Valley, ARizona; Daughter, Stacey Sandersfeld, of Mayer, Arizona; Brother, John D. Wassenmiller of Cottonwood, Arizona and Sister, CArol G.
