“ Thinking of you today, Russ. For no particular reason. I thank the good Lord for all the fond memories of you, Oliver, your brother, and Lill, your mom, whom my brother, Joey, sisters, Nancy and Kathie, my mom, Jean, and dad, Joe, and my grandma, Agnes, all shared through the many years growing up and living as your next door neighbors and dear friends on Church Street in Elmhurst, Illinois. Only sweetness are my memories of a kind and gentle and generous man. So many memories! Through so many years. I feel privileged that when middle-aged, my family moved, too, to Arizona, and we were once again reunited. I was honored to be part of your gravesite services, to say a few unprepared words and to say goodbye. God bless you, Russ, for the wonderful man you were and the role you played in the lives of my family. With love, sincerely, Susan Mary Kotowski Hewitt
