

Angelo Famalaro

June 14, 1916 - January 2, 2009

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

MM

“ Anne:
Expressing sympathy is never easy... all I can say is how sorry I am. I hope that it may help in some way to know that friends are sharing the sorrow in your heart. May the comfort of family and friends give you strength in the days ahead. Know that Ang will be remembered in my prayers.

Mary Manzer - January 02, 2009 at 12:00 AM

JF

“ *My Beloved Dad,
You were always the personification of an ideal father - full of love, patience and guidance. Your integrity and self-sacrificing nature manifested itself in all matters, large and small.*

I love you deeply and you will be profoundly missed. You have lived a saintly life in pursuit of holiness and sanctification.

*You now take your eternal place with our Heavenly Father.
Until we are together again, may you rest in peace.*

Your loving son,

John

John Famalaro - January 02, 2009 at 12:00 AM

DS

“ I only met Angelo a few times, but I will always remember his sweet smile.

I know that he was a very sweet, longsuffering, and patient man. I offer my condolences to Marion, John, Angela, and Theresa. I know that the four of you loved him dearly.

Diane Sampson - January 02, 2009 at 12:00 AM

JB

“ Anne, I am very blessed to have known Ang, to have laughed with him and cared for him in the dark of night when you were not there to comfort him. I am proud to call you my friend. You are a very special person to have dedicated so much time of your life to caring for your wonderful husband, and to have made sure his needs were met when he could not care for himself and when you could not be with him. May your wonderful humor, and the loving memories of Ang brighten your smile again and fill your heart with joy. Know you are loved my many!

Jerri Bedell - January 02, 2009 at 12:00 AM

JV

“ We first met Angelo and Ann when volunteering at the VA Hospital in 1997.

There was a loving connection between us from the start, and continued through the years. He will be missed. He had the sweetest smile and loved having visitors. There is a poem I like to include here by an unknown author.

*God saw he was getting tired,
and a cure was not to be.
So He put his arms around him,
and whispered "come to me".
With tearful eyes we watched him suffer, and saw him fade away.
Although we loved him dearly,
we could not make him stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
hardworking hands to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us--
He only takes the best!*

Ann, there never was a more devoted and loving wife. Angelo was very lucky to have you, and you were lucky to have him. We know there is a very empty space in your heart that can never be filled.

Joy and Howard VanSyckle - January 02, 2009 at 12:00 AM

PA

“ Dear Anne -

My heart is sad for your loss since I know how devoted you were to Angel in good times and in during his lengthy illness. My sincere wish is that time and precious memories will help to ease your sorrow.

I'm sorry that I have a commitment which will prevent me from attending Angel's service. Please know that my thoughts and prayers will be with you.

*With deepest sympathy,
Pat (Nicolai) Arntzen*

Pat (Nicolai) Arntzen - January 02, 2009 at 12:00 AM

DA

“ I always enjoyed Angelo's smile. We laughed about the chicken story for a very long time. I have been fortunate to have known Mr. & Mrs. Famalaro.

Debra Anderson - January 02, 2009 at 12:00 AM

TP

“ Dear Ann and Family:

We will have special memories of Ang and you, Ann. Of special times we all shared in the dining room at ECRC. Ang was blessed to have such wonderful care from you Ann. We hope each day's sorrow will be replaced with wonderful blessing filled memories of times you and Ang had with family and friends. Our thoughts and prayers are with you now and always.

*God bless you all always,
The Van Dusen, Peve and White Families*

Terri Peve - January 02, 2009 at 12:00 AM

TP

“ Angelo Famalaro

Terri Peve - January 02, 2009 at 12:00 AM

MW

“ What precious memories you must have of this handsome man who was so dear to your heart. I do wish that I had met him! I'm sorry it has been such a heavy process these last years. Please know that I am thinking of you and sending God's blessings to hold you tight during this difficult time. I'll be at the service on Saturday. Much love to you...

Michele Van Wormer - January 02, 2009 at 12:00 AM