Charles "Chuck" Lynch, with sons at his side, passed away at the age of 84 on April 19, 2022 in his home in Prescott Valley, Arizona. Chuck was born on June 2, 1937 in Lowville, NY to Ethel Ward and Edwin Lynch. He attended high school at Lowville Academy excelling in music on the trumpet, in the chorus, theater, as well as in sports where he played basketball (captain), baseball, and football (co-captain). With a winning smile, he stood proudly as the senior prom king.

In Utica, New York, Chuck began his family and his career at Sears & Roebuck. He transferred with Sears to Pittsfield, Massachusetts, and worked as a salesman or manager of Sewing Machines, Major Appliances, and Hardware. From there he and his wife Kitty started their own business, The Whippletree Bed & Breakfast in Lanesboro, Massachusetts. After moving to New Hampshire and working for the Manchester Union Leader, Chuck and Kitty retired to Prescott Valley where they made a host of friends and, as ever, were active in the Lutheran church and local community. They enjoyed traveling regularly to visit their grandchildren. They also relished adventures through America and Europe.

“ Chuck was a faithful volunteer and supporter of Horses with Heart for many years. I first met him when I came to his church to give a presentation about Horses with Heart. We had many wonderful visits when he would come to volunteer, or later in life, to watch our therapeutic riding classes. He was well loved and will be missed by all.
