

Dominic Salafia

April 4, 1950 - October 29, 2009

Dominic William Salafia, 59, of Prescott Valley, Arizona passed away at his home under the care of Hospice Of The Pines. Dominic was born in Detroit, Michigan on April 4, 1950 to Sebastian and Elsie Salafia. He was a graduate of East Detroit High School. It was as a student at Macomb County Community College, that he began an internship with Ford Motors which resulted in twelve years of employment. During this time, he secured a Bachelor's Degree in engineering from Wayne State University. Dominic was married to Sheli Hoffman in 1977. Daughter Andrea and son Michael were born to this marriage while living in East Detroit. In 1983, they moved to Phoenix where Dominic began a new career at Garrett Pneumatic Systems Division. He was considered a top notch employee; loyal, honest, creative and hard working. Always an eager learner, Dominic secured a masters degree in Business Administration from Scottsdale Community College. Over the years the company changed owners and he retired in 1983 after 23 years from Honeywell. Dominic was a hard working, happy man who loved his time traveling, especially with Sheli. He appreciated his family and friends – especially when he whipped them in some game of cards. His nieces and nephews loved the way Uncle Don teased them. “ Sheli and Family,

I wanted you all to know how sorry I am that Dom has passed away. As you know, I prayed that God would receive Dom's spirit and that prayer was granted - and I hope you all believe that.

Sheli, you told me many times that Dom wasn't afraid to die, but he was afraid to be in pain. As his body was experiencing pain toward the end, his wishes to not be in pain were granted.

In the next several weeks, Sheli, you are going to have high moments and very low moments. I am here for you. I'll talk to you on the phone, I'll pick you up and take you out and I'll do whatever it takes.

We've become very close over this past year and I look forward to being a support to you.

I'll always remember Dom shaking his head at the both of us as we tried to load all our stuff from his truck into my car to go to contest. His expression was - these are two nutty women. He was right!

Don't dwell on these past few months. Think of all the fun times you and Dom had together and with your daughter and son.

Dom was a fine husband, father and grandfather. There's not much more we can ask of anyone.

“ Dear Sheli... You've shown such strength through the difficult times leading up to Dom's departure...you've been an example to all of us. Thank God, no more pain for Dom. I'm sure there are many happy memories...concentrate on those, and call on your friends when we can help. In Harmony and love, Mickie

You have shared a life of love and enrichment. Those wonderful qualities are solidly in place and will remain as part of Dom's legacy to you and your family. Incredible memories will certainly be there to cheer you always.

I am proud of you, your strength and wisdom as you journey through this transition time. May we all learn from you! Dom would want you to move forward with your life and I am here to help that happen. Hal joins me in assuring you that you are well grounded in our hearts and prayers.

“ Grieve not, my friend, nor speak of him with tears, but laugh and talk of him as if he were beside you. Don't let the thought of him be sad, for he is loving you just as he always has. You were so very good to him and he loved you so. He had told me at one time that it was heaven here with you and he loved every minute he had with you. You were his life as he was yours and always will be. He will ALWAYS be with you, my friend and big sister.

I love you. Please let me know if ever you need anything. When you are ready lets do our breakfasts again. They were always fun.

“ *First a Family man
Husband, Father, Brother, Uncle, Son, Grandfather, Nephew
Always a Family man*

*I did not know him well
But I knew him well enough to know
That I liked him, that I loved him
As a Family man*

*Eating seafood
Playing dominoes
Calling Matt professor
Smiling, laughing
Being a Family man*

*The tears flow
You are dearly missed
Your absence felt, but your presence too
Help guide our thoughts
Continue to be with us in Spirit
Teach us to be Family men.*
