My sister, I cannot express how much you are missed on so many levels. The memories I have are bountiful and endless. Your sense of humor, and your love of animals and family are what made you a one of a million. You are now with our sister Deborah Jo, our brother Bud and Mom and Dad. And so many more. I'm sure you all are playing poker and loving on one another... This is not goodbye because we will all be together again someday...
