“ There are few words in the English language that allows me to adequately describe Pete. A loving and dear friend, he will be missed by all who knew him and mostly by those of us who loved him like family. My heart is with you all as you say goodbye to a gentle and godly soul. Love you. Dodie

“ Dearest Pike family,
Just recently Pete was in the store and among recent events, told me of his trip he had recently returned from. One of his buddies had died and Pete (& Pat) said that it was one of the most beautiful funerals they had ever attended. You see, what Pete loved were the bagpipes that had been played. This part of the story became a very emotional moment for him. That was to be the last time I saw him but I will always remember how my heart ached for the pain in his heart. I pray that when the Lord called him home there were bagpipes there to make his coming home party awesome. And I know for a fact that Jesus had to say to him, "Well done, my good and faithful servant." All my love... Terry

“ I met uncle Pete only once years ago at a family meeting in which my mother-in-law (Pete's younger sister) introduced me to him. He was a very friendly and loving man although we did not spend a lot of time talking to each other.

One Christmas uncle Pete sent me a card with money in it. What he wrote in that card really touched my heart; he told me that he volunteered at St. Paul de Vincent and understood what I was going through (I was very depressed with my family situation).

Uncle Pete's act of kindness is what I remember by.

Love you and miss you, uncle Pete.
