“ Grandma

Her work on Earth is now complete though our tears as a stream do flow loved ones waiting she shall meet

A reflection of her in our minds appear yes, she is gone but her children carry on seems so far away, yet so near

Gone is the gentle soul we have known to a better place prepared as told a place with God, her deeds have sown

Dear Grandma, we must let you go dreams of yesterday still light our way the journey must continue yet another day we shall miss you so “ Oh Grandma~ We will miss you so much! Thank you for all the wonderful times we spent together. Even in the worst of times, when we would walk into the room your face would light up....which told us how much you loved us. Christmas will never be the same with out you~ I remember the cookies, fudge, candies, cakes and goodies that you would prepare months in advance...tables full all for us! Grandpa's been waiting for you for many years and he is thrilled to have you by his side once again, even though we will miss you so. Love you Grandma.

“ Aunt Chris will be missed by her blessed family having her as a Mom and by me her nephew. She will always have a special place in my heart. The times she visited us in California and those special meals she joyfully cooked up for us when we visited the family in Arizona. Even at 4 years of age I can still remember parts of the train trip from Dallas, Texas to Hanford, California where Aunt Chris, Brenda, Mom and I met up with Uncle Wingo. I am confident of this one thing Aunt Chirs iw with the Lord Jesus Christ seeingand rejoicing with all those who went on before. My prayer is that all those in our family that haven't accepted the Gift of Eternal Life through Jesus Christ will do so. God Bless all present at the Memorial service. John 11:25 Jesus said : "I am the resurrection and the life; he that believes in Me shall live Live even if he dies." New American Standard Bible
