“ I worked with George at the school district, he was one of our best drivers. I enjoyed working with him during those years, we had a lot of good times. George will be missed, I've thought about George and Gloria many times always brought a smile to my face. So sorry for your loss, Gloria and family will be in our prayers.

George will be remembered by his Texas "kinfolks" as a kind, friendly and considerate person. We were always happy to see George and his family. His voice was very distinctive like his father Porter. Our thoughts go out to the family during this time of George "going home."
