“ The world lost one of it's 'good guys' with John. Sure, he had some rough edges and occasionally had to watch his language, but you could count on him being at front of the line to help. Letting him go will be hard, but he will not be forgotten. Most people probably in Prescott Valley probably remember him as 'the nice produce guy who helped them pick out the BEST watermelon'. Produce groupies.

*Carie, Mom, Ed, Linda. No one is forgetting you either. You are all in our thoughts and prayers. Words just can't express my sorrow for your loss. If you need anything, don't hesitate to call.
I sure am gonna miss the little guy.*

“ Some of my early memories growing up, I shared with John. From hanging out at his house playing video games, showing me how to download music from the internet, to going to a concert with me at the last minute. John and I spent quite a bit of time together and I am sad that was cut short. All my love goes out to his wife Carrie and the entire family. I am a hundred miles away but I am here if you need me.

“ My heart is heavy as I write this knowing that I will not run into you at the ballfield anymore. I want so to cross out your picture as one of those who lost his life in that horrible crash but I cannot. Although I only saw you during the softball seasons, you are one of the people I looked forward to seeing each season. Rest assured that the softball family will keep Carie in our prayers as she goes through this difficult time as well as do anything to support her. You will be missed, John! You are one of the "good guys" and your absence will be noticed.

separation does not mean separation of souls...our relationships do not die;
they just change form.

“ Why did you have to go and die?
We don't want to have to say goodbye.
God must have thought you were special to have taken you away,
but couldn't he have waited for another day?
God's looking after you now,
High, high up in the sky.
Up there where all the angels lie.
You wouldn't have wanted anyone to make a fuss,
After all, you're still down here with all of us.
Just because we can't see you, doesn't mean you're not here.
We know you are somewhere very, very near.
We all love you so much but it time to say:
Goodbye My Friend
Because your life here on earth has come to an end.
Rest in Peace,

In Honor of a great man, We raise our beer cans and celebrate the life of a man we all are honored to call friend

CARRIE, We believe in signs, and this one was meant to find its way home to you

*And I am no longer with you
Let no tears fall or sorrow prevail
When you see your reflection shimmer in the water
Smile and know that I see your smile
When you feel the cool grass beneath your feet
And the sun's warmth upon your back
Know that I feel it also
When you hear the leaves rustling in the wind
Know it is my voice softly whispering to you
When you see a butterfly dancing among flowers
Know that I am dancing also
When you gently touch a puppy's soft fur
Know that I too feel your touch*

*When the wind swirls across your skin
Know that it is I who caresses you
When you love another
Know that I too feel your love
These words are truth, my love
Have faith, my love
As long as beauty lives upon the earth and in the stars
And love lives in every beat of every heart*

*We Love you

“ *My love and prayers go out to you Carrie. John was such a happy soul always smiling. He will be missed by many. Love and prayers to his family.
Special thoughts to Penny, Linda, Eric, and Ed and their families.
May the many memories sustain you at this time. I recall when John was just 16 and working with my Lori. Probably his encouragement helped her stick it out as a carry-out for two years. May God watch over him till we meet again.*

“ John, You will be greatly missed, you were a best man and a best friend. This football season will be so different without your phone calls for draft pick help and without us going over the Steeler plays. I can't imagine a trip to Prescott without us stopping by and seeing you and Carie; calling us in the house as you pause a game of PS2 or showing us your latest find at the antique or rock store. Carie, at our wedding John mentioned that he had all the luck in finding the right Carie. Please always remember that. John was a great guy who loved his family and friends; he will always be remembered and never forgotten. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ I want to let you know I enjoyed working with "Shultz" I am a new employee and he was the only one that would say "goodmorning" to me and being new that made me feel welcome and like I was someone. From what I saw he was very funny and had many many friends here...I always saw him joking around with everyone. I wish you well and a big hug goes out to you Mrs. Shults.

Many memories we have shared, like buying my first car from him. All my love goes out to his wife Carie and the entire family. I may be miles and miles away but I am here if you need me. “ I met John at his work. In jail in the past I have ran across many "nasty" DO's. John was the exception. He always was smiling and laughing, and treated us women, with the utmost respect. He never made you feel like you weren't worth anything. He was a gentleman. You will be missed Schultz, gone to soon, but not ever forgotten.
