Judy was a strong wonderful person who did not miss a motocross race when her grandson Kip was racing. She would watch every turn and hold her breath as he hit the jumps. She ran faster then most of us making sure she didn't miss a thing. I will miss her kind heart and loving ways.....Evanne, Al and Nick Cuccorelli

“ Judy was a dear friend for 30 years. We met when she came to work at the medical office where I worked. We remained friends following our retirement, as we shared the same values and interests. She was a heroine to many, the way she coped with her cancer, never letting it get in the way of her interests and hobbies. The last time I saw her, we had a wonderful, but teary good-bye. She comforted me, by reminding me that everything will be alright, God is in charge, and he's a wonderful God! Rest in peace my dear friend... and as you reminded me, we'll see one another on the other side.

In Christian Love, Elaine
