“ Judy will forever hold a tender place in my heart. Until we meet again my dearest friend. May the love of those left behind give help through the days ahead.

“ I have never met a lady who was so deeply in love with her friends and family! Through all the good times and the bad this wonderful woman has always been the most supportive , understanding and loving shoulder to lean on. She would do most anything she could do to see a smile on her families and even a strangers face. Her heart had to be as big as the world. Her motivation to make sure everyone was safe and comfortable and made sure they knew how much they were loved will never be forgotten. Although she may have held an onery grudge or two she never judged your hard times. Her arms were always open. Judy, you are so so missed already. It's never going to be the same walking up your driveway or into your home to say hello (and the dogs jumping on you of course). It's hard seeing everyone hurting and shedding tears because of how much we all miss you but it really shows how much you affected our lives and how important you are to us. I fondly think about you and hope you are smiling down on us! Thank you for teaching us love, kindness and sharing help. I will especially miss the tasty treats you would surprise us with . The homemade potato chips were the best ever. Rest easy we love 💕 you Judy.

“ It was by a fluke accident that over 5 years ago we saw a posting for a house in Spring Valley. We took the chance to see if anyone was home. Judy saw us outside her gate, and welcome 4 strangers into her home to see it. That day marked the day that a wonderful friendship began. We bought her house and she moved a few houses away and soon became my close friend. I feel honored to have known her. I felt loved by her and I adored her. I'll miss days of sitting on the porch with her and eating Mayer Market burgers together. Her smile will forever be a loving memory. When I count my blessings, I'll ALWAYS count her twice. I'll miss her so much!!
