A Short Goodbye

Please don't be sad, for I am not gone, the wind in the trees will play you my song. The coyotes and wolves, they sing you my tune, my spirit shines in the soft light of the moon. My soul's in the rain that fixes the dry, my music is in the song of a redtails cry. Look for me, I am there, I'm all around you, I'm everywhere. I am not gone, I am not past, grieve no more make this tear your last. Remember the laughter, the fun that we had. Remember the good, forget all the sad. Please dry your eyes, please do not cry, for this my dear is but a short goodbye.

“ I enjoyed being Kim”s neighbor. Her smile and kindness is what I remember of her. She even spoke first to my dog, Bentley, prior to ever saying hello to me! I loved that about Kim and her absolute love of animals. They responded to her too.
Kim always spoke about her family with praise and a smile. Her sister and family were very important to her. She loved their support and love. Kim I miss you! Jesus is so happy to have you with him.

“ Kimmy was one of my best friends & we were close enough to be like "sisters"! We met 6 years ago & hit it off immediately! She helped me out when my husband, Gary, died suddenly of a heart attack Aug. 1st, 2019. I'm so happy for Kimmy to graduate this life & leave behind all the issues she'd dealt with! I will, however, miss joking around with her & laughing! Oh how we loved to make each other laugh! I know I will feel her presence & I look forward to a "next" lifetime with her! God bless her soul! 🙏👼😊
