

Lorraine Dwight

October 4, 1926 - August 7, 2010

Lorraine Sieling Dwight, age 83, died on August 7, 2010 in Prescott, Arizona. Lorraine was born in Avon, South Dakota and lived there until she married her sweetheart, Edward "Ned" Dwight in 1949. They were blessed to spend 59 years together, in South Dakota, Baudette, Minnesota and the last 23 years in Dewey, Arizona. Lorraine was always known for her gorgeous gardens, fantastic florals and her bountiful bear collection. Her most important priorities were always family and church and she dedicated her life to nurturing and serving both. Lorraine is survived by her children, Bruce Dwight of Charleston, West Virginia, Kim Tyre of Excelsior, Minnesota; and three grandchildren, Sarah Brown, Ashley Tyre and Alex Tyre. A memorial service of thanksgiving for Lorraine's life will be at 1 PM Thursday, August 12, 2010 at Faith United Church, 1061 Old Chisholm Trail, Dewey, Arizona. The Dwight family requests that memorials be sent to Faith United Church.

Tribute Wall

“ Lorraine Dwight

January 30, 2023 at 05:11 AM

“ We had the privilege of getting to know and care for Lorraine for only a short while. We both entered the Good Samaritan Care Center in mid-July to recover from our surgeries. We shared the room next door to Lorraine and the three of us shared a table in the dining room. So three times a day we had the opportunity to talk about our lives. It was during these times that we enjoyed hearing about Lorraine's life in South Dakota and Minnesota as well as her husband and children and her collections of bears and Victorian Christmas ornaments.

Our time together was brief but very meaningful to us. We will miss her, but we feel very blessed to have known Lorraine, if only for a brief time.

LaBeth Pondish & Maxine Perkins - August 07, 2010 at 12:00 AM