

Madeline Fowler

April 23, 1929 - April 18, 2025

Madeline Fowler, born on April 23, 1929, in Long Beach, CA, passed away peacefully on April 18, 2025. She was a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and a trailblazer in her community. Madeline is survived by her daughter Leigh Herron, her grandchildren Ashleigh Ritter and Jesse Herron, her son-in-law Chad Ritter, and her great grandson Kaleb Ritter. She was preceded in death by her loving husband Robert Fowler, her mother Ellen Lavery, her sibling Stanley Lavery, and her son-in-law Ronald Herron. Madeline had a passion for life that was evident in her many hobbies. She enjoyed square dancing, was an active member of the Red Hat Society, loved dining with friends, and was an avid reader. Her vibrant personality and zest for life were contagious to all who knew her. One of Madeline's most notable achievements was becoming one of the first female police officers in Burlington, Massachusetts. Her dedication and commitment to serving her community were an inspiration to many. Madeline's legacy will live on through her family and the countless lives she touched. She will be deeply missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her. A memorial service will be held to celebrate Madeline's life on May 3rd at 1pm at Sunrise Funeral Home in Prescott Valley, AZ.
