“ *Dearest Aunt Mardy,
You will be greatly missed. Growing up as a little child, I always looked forward to coming to see you and Uncle Ed. You always made me smile when you'd laugh at something we had done. You taught me alot in Chino Valley and in my later years when your great-great nephew came along, he always smiled when I said Aunt Mardy was gonna be at the house. You always listened to what I had to say, you never criticized anything I said. You always showed me the right way if it was wrong. You and Bubba were right on top of me at your house to tell me it was wrong and correct me. You taught me how to pray before a meal, I think of you everytime I do it. Where we were sitting and what we had at that meal when you taught me. My memories of you are precious and I will never forget them or you. You will always be in my heart. My husband Ray and your nephew will also miss you dearly. They thought an awful lot of you. I will also treasure our story of old Brown Eyes with you and Uncle Ed. You pulled me through that with your love and I will never forget that. I will also never forget your kindness, your compassion, your smile and your laugh. You were a great insperation growing up and I will miss you dearly my dear Aunt Mardy. With all my love,
Your Great Neice Carma Hardin Rauls

“ I met Mrs. Fyke when I went to her home to explain to her how to use her oxygen. This began a long and blessed relationship for all of us at Preferred Homecare. Mrs. Fyke frequently came in to the office to exchange cylinders when she was out and about with her friend, shopping and getting her hair done. She would visit with us in the office for a few minutes and it always brightened our day to see her and visit with her. When we saw her drive up, we would all stop whatever we were doing and come out to see her. She was our favorite patient and we really missed her visits when she moved to Cottonwood although when she was in Prescott, she made it a point to come by the office. Knowing her was a blessing in my life.

“ Our deepest sympathies go out to her brother David and sons Bob&David and their families. She was such a dear Aunt and we were very fortunate to have her in our family a very easy person to love and care about.I know she is at peace in the prescence of our Father and she is happy and breathing fine. So glad to of loved her and learned so much from her for so long.Quite a lady!I know she will be missed by many.
