

Mary Kiel

April 14, 1952 - November 14, 2022

Mary Kiel was born in April 1952 and she passed away on Nov. 14, 2022. She was 70 years old. She was married to Robert (Bob) Kiel – who passed away on Jan. 21, 2020 – for almost 50 years.

Mary was a loving mother who raised her family with her husband in Ontario, California, for more than three decades. Bob was a science teacher for more than 30 years in Glendale, California, as well as the co-author of an interdisciplinary teaching guide. When Bob retired, he and Mary moved to Prescott Valley, Arizona, where they shared a decade of memories with family and friends.

Mary was kind and giving to all, made new friends easily, and was always up for an adventure. She especially loved the beaches of California, camping trips, road trips, antiques, cooking, home décor and decorating, laughing, the church community, and spending time with family and friends, in addition to celebrating all the holidays in a big way.

She's survived by her three children: Aaron Kiel in Raleigh, N.C.; Amy Dutton (and her husband Kurt Dutton) in Prescott Valley, Arizona; and Adam Kiel in San Jose, California; as well as her four grandchildren – Kortney Kiel, Cameron Leuschner, Kinsley Dutton and Morgan Kiel.

She'll be sorely missed by all, and her family will always be on the hunt for "the ultimate," as she liked to say when she was searching for shells on the beach.

The family of Mary Kiel will be celebrating and paying tribute to her life during the week of Thanksgiving, Nov. 20-26.
