“ This woman can't be gone. My heart is crushed. We had such wonderful, fun times together in the 90's. Mary, Jan and Mona were always bumming around. Life can be so hard. Wayne, I know she is in a far better place but time will surely ease our hurt of not being around her NOW. God Bless all family.....

I will forever miss the fun we had during Football season teasing each other and arguing over teams that were losing and winning. I will always miss your sweet smile and funny comments on FB. You were definitely one of a kind, and I wish there were lots more like you Mary! R.I.P. my sweet cousin.

“ You will be missed by many. One Christmas at the church's white elephant party she brought a framed tobacco leaf. My mom ended up with it. She confessed to my mom that she really missed it so mom took it back the next year so Mary could win it back. We joked for years about the leaf. I had many laughs with Mary she was a wonderful person.
