“ I was so sorry to see in the paper that Mary Pat had passed away. Mary Pat and I were both COE Coordinators in the GUHS District--She at Moon Valley and I at Glendale. We spent many hours together at monthly meetings. I, also, enjoyed some happy times at her and Jack's lovely home in Moon Valley. I had always planned to visit their home in Prescott, but something always got in the way. I'm so sorry that I an unable to come to the celebration of Mary Pat's life on Sat., Jan 10, because my husband is under Hospice care, and I am the main caregiver. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you, Jack, and your entire family! Mary Pat will be missed greatly by so many.

“ Everytime I think of MaryPat, I think S'Mores and hot cocoa. She was always great to me and my family on the camping trips and although brief, I always enjoyed our encounters. You will be greatly missed.

“ Mary Pat was both a bunco and quilting friend. One Christmas at the bunco gift exchange, I picked the last gift instead of choosing from the other open gifts. It was a lovely Christmas mobile that was contributed by MP. I love it, and I will always think of her at Christmas. Even more heartfelt has been our little applique quilting group. She's given me a couple of pieces of fabric that fit into my squares. Since we were making the same square with different fabric, I will never look on my squares without thinking of Mary Pat. I will miss her so much.

“ I was so sad to read about Mrs. Garry's passing. She was my typing teacher at Moon Valley 30 years ago. I'll always remember her sense of humor, patience, and kindness to everyone in the class. She really was my favorite teacher. God bless Mrs. Garry and her family.

“ Mary Pat was my COE leader at Moon Valley in 1979. What a wonderful teacher she was -- always had a smile on her face, always offered a happy Hello and a warm hug. She inspired us to be great and showed us the way. She was truly one of my favorite teachers and I will always remember the fun she brought to class. My thoughts and prayers are with her family.
