

Mr. Nelson Withers Fulkerson

April 18, 1985 - December 4, 2013

Nelson Withers Fulkerson, born April 18th, 1985 to Samuel Hiland and Stacey Beryl Fulkerson in Tucson, Arizona was welcomed to heaven on December 4th, 2013.

Nelsons and his family moved to Prescott in 1986 and then to Prescott Valley in the same year. He graduated from Bradshaw Mountain High school in 2003. He obtained his Wild Land Fire Fighter certificate from Yavapai College. Nelson worked for Color Spot Nurseries, Costco, AAE and for the majority of his adult life as a heavy equipment operator.

Nelson loved anything to do with the outdoors; hunting, fishing, gardening and hiking to name a few. When Nelson was little he was all boy; he loved to play in the dirt and loved bugs, lizards, frogs and dogs. As an adult he still loved lizards and tortoises and had his dream job to play in the dirt and get paid.

One of his favorite places was Havasupai. He loved to laugh and enjoyed making others laugh. His dimples were deep and would light up a room.

Nelson had too many friends to count and cherished them all. He would do anything for a friend. Above all, he loved his family and we love him too. We will miss him always until we meet again in heaven through the promise of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ

Nelson is survived by his parents Samuel Hiland and Stacey Beryl (Sommers) Fulkerson; brothers Hiland Eugene (Christina Lynn) and Samuel "Kane" (Jessica Michael); little "sissy" Ivory Beryl, nieces: Amy Beth, Alyssa Lynn, Andrea Taylor and Addison Grace (Christina and Hiland); aunts and uncles:

Nelson was preceded in death by his grandparents; Don and Betty Sommers and Jack and Donna Fulkerson and cousin Kyle Sommers(Todd and Darlene Sommers)

A celebration of his life will take place December 14th, 2013, 11:00 am at Trinity Lutheran Church, 3950 N. Valorie Drive, Prescott Valley, officiated by Pastor Tim Blau.

“ Why Do Good People Die?
Isaiah 57:1-2

“Good people pass away; the godly often die before their time. But no one seems to care or wonder why. No one seems to understand that God is protecting them from the evil to come. For those who follow godly paths will rest in peace when they die” Isaiah 57:1-2 (NLT).

Sometimes we foolishly question God. We question His fairness. We question His judgment. We question His ability to steer the world. We question why He seemingly allows evil to triumph over good. We question why He lets good people die. But this verse makes it clear that sometimes death is not only a relief from current suffering, but also a protection from the future suffering a person would have undergone had their life been prolonged.

Sometimes when our loved ones are taken “before their time,” we question God. We wonder why He works the way He does. Well, this passage gives us a small glimpse into the possibilities; but the truth is that God’s thoughts are higher than our thoughts, His ways are higher than our ways (see Isaiah 55:8), so it’s best to simply trust Him. This is so easy to say and to do in the good times, when everything is going our way, but when everything seems to be going against us—when the world seems to be winning and death seems to be victorious—those are the times we need to trust most; those are the times we need God most.

So, the next time something bad happens in your life and you’re wonder if God is fair or if He’s in control, remember this beautiful passage of Scripture that gives us just a little glimpse into the ways of God—a God Who only wants the best for His people, a God Who cries when we cry, a God Who wants to save us from the pain and suffering of this world, a God Who wants to save our souls for eternity. All we need to do is put our trust fully in Him, realizing that He indeed is in control and that if we give our lives completely over to Him, He will save us and return us to the perfection we were created for.

“ I will always think of you sitting on the couch and reminiscing about anything and everything; you would laugh so hard that your face would turn beat red and you would hold your belly it reminded me of the hyenas from the Lion King.

I will also remember you when I walk into the kitchen; we would always fight over the sweet snap peas, pickles or fudge. I believe you did this to be a pain.

I love you Nels, see you soon brother lala!
