“ Phil was a great guy and a great craftsman. He made me a plant stand and a candle holder, which I use a plant stand and still love them as much as when he gave them to me. Phil was suppose to watch and make sure no one built on the lots between him and us, while Bill and I were gone to Phoenix for one of Bill's surgeries but as you can see, he didn't do it and all the lots sold! My Bill really like Phil also, he would drive by your house and would have to stop and talk and talk and talk. We will miss Phil but he is doing good now!! Heaven is a great place and we will meet our loved ones again. God is good!!!

“ You often hear that it is a small world, and that came into play when a distant cousin of mine in Gowanda, NY, came to Prescott Valley to visit their camping buddies, "brown eyes" and Dolores D'Agostino! From that day on he was no longer Phil to me, just "brown eyes!" Because of our family commitments we were unable to visit very often; however, we were concerned about Phil's failing health remembered him in prayers. Jim will be at the service tomorrow and I will be there in thought. Rest in peace and "Happy Trails."

“ Doloris, please know my condolences go out to you and your family for your loss. Although Philip is now resting and has returned to dust (Genesis 3:19), Jehovah God does promise a resurrection (Acts 24:15 & John 5:28,29). So, there is hope of seeing Philip again and please keep that hope. Again, I'm very sorry for your loss.
