“ You were my first true love. I have been searching for you for so many years to reunite you with your son Bryan. You will always have a piece of my heart. Rest in peace and enjoy being in the presants of our Heavenly Father. Until we meet again. Love you always. Reba

“ “With a hint of good judgment, to fear nothing, not failure or suffering or even death, indicates that you value life the most. You live to the extreme; you push limits; you left nothing but a few memories. You never spent time worrying over what is to come, or what might or might not happen. You abandoned the search for security and reached out to the risk of just simply living with both arms. Which can be admired by some but saddened by others. Life is an art of making our own choices, before others choices make us, and you did that, in which I respect. We’ve all got the same ending to the story but you Live in the moment. Forgot the past and didn't concern yourself with the future. You fully embrace the now, no matter what the situation. I just want you to know that I I will always miss, cherish and remember the free spirit, adventurous person you were.... What a great thing to leave behind. Love you <3
