“ Ethel Dannen called me yesterday to let me know about Rays passing. You have my sympathy.

Keith and I enjoyed a long friendship with Ray and Mabel, and I miss all of them.

“ Mabel and Ray were here before we had our house built down the street. In fact his house and the one next door were the only ones down at that end of the street. Mabel and Ray were great Christian people and let that light shine for all to see. He is home in Heaven now. God is good! But we will miss him, everytime I would go for my walk and pass the house I think of both of them and the times that were!
