September 7, 1926 - April 9, 2013

Richard M. Hudson, 86 was born September 7, 1926 in Waukena, CA. He died April 9, 2013 in Prescott, AZ.

Richard 'Dick' Hudson was a kind and generous man. Born into very tough circumstances, he provided for his family through many small businesses, often working long hours. Dick treated everyone the same, from the banker to the waitress. He leaves a legacy of hard work, personal responsibility, honesty and love. Dick and his late wife Laura cared for their son Rick for years before he succumbed to MS in 1991, and cared deeply about their grandchild, Rick's son Jesse.

Dick is survived by Jesse and his wife Amy, and their two daughters Grace and Emma Hudson. The Sunrise Funeral Home was entrusted with his arrangements.

“ Dear Jesse and family, I was so sorry to read about your Grandfather and Grandmother's passing. I knew them when they owned the Sierra Inn. My husband Mike and I were your parents neighbors. I was a friend of your mother Cindy. I was with her when you were born. Mike and I still live in the same home in Mountain Club. I do remember your loving grandparents and their devotion to you and your father. I am happy to hear that you now have a family of your own. My best to your entire family. I have fond memories of all of you.
