“ To Tyler's Loved Ones,

If there is a more horrific thing in this world than the death of a child I don't know what it is. I saw your beautiful boy's picture in the newspaper and just wanted to send my sincere best wishes for your family. I don't know you but if I could I would take some of your pain. Please know that whether they are able to write or speak the words, your community is pulling for you. May you all survive this unbearable pain.

*Sincerely,
Marlene Stephens*

“ I know that words cannot express the heartache that comes with losing a child. I hope somehow your family can find the strength to get through this difficult time. I did not know him nor did my daughter who is a student at BMHS, but our heart aches for your family and we are praying for you.

“ Tyler-

Dude!! We were close, you were like the sourdough bread to my grilled cheese sandwich(: you were such a good kid, you had the best qualities such as; you never let anyone tell you that you couldn't succeed, never let anybody bring you down, your smart brains, you could sing, you could play instruments, play sports (football super good)!! You never gave up in yourself Sousa, and that was the best of them all. You thrived to push yourself in everything you did in and out of school. You were becoming such a great man, and I knew you were going to be such a successful man in the future!! You were definately my INSPIRATION when I felt like giving up and not going through with my dream, you kept me going and told me I could do it. Im extremely lucky to have met such a spectacular man like you! Our memories we shared will always be remembered. You will always be in my heart

“ I'm so sorry for your family's loss. My son Steven went to school with Tyler at Taylor Hicks and Granite Mountain and has always considered Tyler a friend of his. Having worked in the classrooms over the years, I had the privilege of getting to know Tyler as well. He was truly such a great kid, and always had a smile on his face. He has touched our hearts and he will be missed. Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with your family.
