

WANDA COLLEEN DAVIS

July 18, 1927 - September 11, 2021

Wanda Colleen Davis, known as “Colleen” or “Gram” by friends and family, passed away in Prescott Valley, Arizona, on September 11, 2021, at the age of 95.

She was born in Cleveland, Tennessee, on July 18, 1926, the second child of Olin Levi Randolph and Rosa Lee Randolph. Wanda married Ernest “Ernie” Davis on June 7, 1941, and they remained married for 75 wonderful years. Colleen, an avid golfer well into her 80’s, was a former member of the Sun City West Lady Putters. A woman of strong faith, she was a member of First Baptist Church of Sun City West, where her late husband was a deacon. She and Ernie resided in Sun City West, Arizona, from 1979 until 2015, when they moved to Prescott Valley, Arizona, to reside with their daughter and her husband.

She was predeceased by her parents, Olin Levi Randolph and Rosa Lee Randolph; her husband, Ernie Davis; sisters, Norma Chambers and Bonnie Henry; her niece, Carol Massey; and her grandson, Zach Fisher. She is survived by her daughter, Sandra Ware, and her husband Roy; a granddaughter, Erin Johnson, and her husband Shane; the wife of her late grandson (Zach), Jennifer Fisher; great grandchildren, Avery Johnson, Blaine Sahlsten, and Treydon Fisher; sisters, Shirley Carroll and Linda Higgins; and many nieces and nephews and their families.

Colleen will be deeply missed by all who knew her. A graveside service will be held at 11:00 AM on Monday, September 20, 2021, at the National Memorial Cemetery of Arizona, 23029 N Cave Creek Road, Phoenix, Arizona, 85024.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to First Baptist Church of Sun City West (623-584-5738) or St. Mary's Food Bank (602-242-3663) in Phoenix.
