

William Ronald Teubert

March 24, 1937 - April 18, 2017

William Ronald Teubert, born March 24, 1937, in Norwood, Minnesota to Edith Nygren Teubert and Guenther R. Teubert, passed away April 18, 2017, in Spring Valley, Arizona.

Bill was married for 46 years to Joel Teubert in Minnesota, where they raised two daughters. Bill had built his career owning metal plating and finishing businesses in both Minnesota and Arizona, and at one point had become the largest owner of metal plating and finishing shops in the United States.

Bill was an active volunteer with St. Vincent De Paul Food Bank, where he collected donations from local businesses for those less fortunate. Bill was also an active member of his churches including St. Joseph's Church in Mayer, Arizona, and Pax Christi, Church in Eden Prairie, Minnesota.

Bill was a loving person who never thought twice of helping others, and always knew how to make people laugh. He was an avid golfer who enjoyed nothing more than being on the golf course, and took pleasure in playing many major courses in the U.S. He will be greatly missed by his family and community, and will be laid to rest in Eden Prairie Minnesota.

Bill was a loving husband, father, brother and grandfather and is survived by his wife, Sally Teubert, along with her two children and two grandchildren; his sister Marvella Flom; daughters Kathleen Burns and Denise Bentson and their families, including his four grandchildren.

Arizona services will be held at St. Joseph's Church in Mayer, Arizona, on Friday April 28, 2017, at 10 a.m. Minnesota services will be held on May 5, 2017, in Eden Prairie, Minnesota, at Pax Christi Church.
